2. The Court adopts Section S of the Procedures for Complex Cases in the Southern District of Texas (Effective August 1, 2021).

3. Effects of Mediation on Pending Matters. Unless otherwise ordered by the Court, the assignment to mediation does not delay or stay discovery, pretrial hearing dates or trial schedules.

4. Time and Place of Mediation. The mediator will schedule a time and place for the mediation and any pre-mediation conferences.

5. Submission Materials. Each party must submit directly to the mediator such materials (the “Submission”) in form and content as the mediator directs. Prior to the mediation, the mediator may talk with the participants to determine what materials would be helpful. The Submission must not be filed with the Court.

6. Protection of Information Disclosed at Mediation. The mediator and the participants in mediation are prohibited from divulging, outside of the mediation, any oral or written information disclosed by the parties in the course of the mediation. No person may rely on or introduce as evidence in any arbitral, judicial or other proceeding, evidence pertaining to any aspect of the mediation effort, including but not limited to: (A) views expressed or suggestions made by a party with respect to a possible settlement of the dispute; (B) the fact that another party had or had not indicated willingness to accept a proposal for settlement made by the mediator, (C) proposals made or views expressed by the mediator; (D) statements or admissions made by a party in the course of the mediation; and (E) documents prepared for the purpose of, in the course of, or pursuant to the mediation. Without limiting the foregoing, the parties are bound by (i) FED. R. EVID. 408, and (ii) any applicable federal or state statute, rule, common law or judicial precedent relating to the privileged nature of settlement discussions, mediations or other alternative dispute resolution procedures. Information otherwise discoverable or admissible in evidence does not become exempt from discovery, or inadmissible in evidence, merely by being used by a party in the mediation.

7. Discovery from Mediator. The mediator may not be compelled to disclose to the Court or to any person any of the records, reports, summaries, notes, communications or other documents received or made by the mediator while serving in such capacity. The mediator may not testify or be compelled to testify regarding the mediation in connection with any arbitral, judicial or other proceeding. The mediator will not be a necessary party in any proceedings relating to the mediation. Nothing contained in this paragraph prevents the mediator from reporting (i) the status, but not the substance, of the mediation effort to the Court; or (ii) whether a party failed to participate in good faith in the mediation.

8. Protection of Proprietary Information. The parties, the mediator and all mediation participants shall protect proprietary information.

9. Preservation of Privileges. The disclosure by a party of privileged information to the mediator does not waive or otherwise adversely affect the privileged nature of the information.

10. Service of Process. No party may be served with a summons, subpoena, notice or other pleading during the mediation or at the location where the mediation is occurring.

11. At least one representative with full settlement authority for each of Parties shall attend the mediation to occur with Judge Isgur at a date agreed upon by the Judge Isgur and the Parties.

12. The scope, location, time and procedures for the mediation will be determined by Judge Isgur, following such consultation with the Parties as he deems appropriate.
